Testimonials

"Annilia is such a dynamic and engaging speaker that we felt very lucky to have for our community festival. Her keynote presentation "Keep Going" was rated by fully 96% of our audience members as "very good to excellent." The material truly resonated with our audience of youth and adult leaders. Many of whom were looking for expert advice on finding ways to connect with the young people of the community, uplifting the leadership within the community and understanding we are all in this together. Annilia gave us tips on how to accelerate our success forward in unity. She was so valuable and a gift to my community I personally have invited her back again for future events.

Annilia's presentation was insightful, engaging and most importantly made a lasting impression on me. As a CEO and man of faith I am used to hearing a lot of presentations and speakers. Annilia has proven to be very knowledgeable and sensitive to the needs of her audience. I have personally experienced that you can count on her to deliver a presentation of "SUBSTANCE."
